CHAPTER 1

ORGANISATION

Objects & Aims

1.1 The main object for which the Óglaigh Náisiúnta na hÉireann (ONE) is established is to:

Support the needs of Irish veterans by the provision of accommodation to homeless and other veterans in need of such domestic accommodation in its Veterans' Homes and the provision of other advice and support to veterans through its nationwide network of Branches and Veterans' Support Centres.

1.2 The following objects set out hereafter are exclusively subsidiary and ancillary to the main object set out above and these objects are to be used only for the attainment of that main object and any income generated therefrom is to be applied for the main object only.

- a. Comradeship
 - (1) To develop a spirit of comradeship among veterans, and between veterans and serving members of Óglaigh Na hÉireann.
 - (2) To foster public interest in Óglaigh Na hÉireann.
 - (3) To promote social and cultural activities.
- b. Advocacy
 - (1) To advocate with the Department of Defence, Defence Forces, and other elements of national and local government on behalf of veterans.
 - (2) To maintain liaison with veterans' organisations of other states.
- c. Remembrance
 - (1) To remember those who served.
 - (2) To participate in national and local remembrance ceremonies.
- d. To do all such other things as will assist in achieving the above objects and aims.

Control and Administration

1.3 The control and administration of ONE shall be vested in

- a. The Board of Directors.
- b. ONE Head Office managed by the Chief Executive Officer.
- c. The Annual General Meeting
- d. Area Councils.
- e. Branches.

1.4 The Board of Directors. The Company shall have a Board of not less than three and not more than twenty members. The Directors shall be appointed to office and may be removed from office at a General Meeting. The Board shall be an elected body. It shall administer the affairs of the Company and shall be assisted in the administration by appointing a Chief Executive Officer and a Company Secretary. The Board of Directors may form committees comprised of Directors and other members of ONE to oversee specific areas of interest, e.g. Audit, Finance, Welfare, etc.

1.5 Directors. The Directors shall act as agents on behalf of the members of ONE and also stand in a fiduciary relationship to its members and shall owe the members of ONE a duty to act in good faith in the interests of the company as a whole. (See also “Articles of Association” paragraphs 33, 35 to 64 inclusive).

1.6 ONE Head Office. One Head Office, managed by the CEO, shall administer the Company on a day to day basis. The CEO is responsible to the Board of Directors for the management and administration of the Organisation.

1.7 ONE Staff. The House Managers, Assistant Managers, and other members of staff of the Company’s residential accommodations and offices shall be appointed by the Board on terms of employment that comply with all current regulations. While the Board may cede such responsibilities to the CEO of the Company from time to time, the Board will finally approve all appointments.

1.8 Area Councils. Area councils may be set up in areas as defined by and at the discretion of the Board.

1.9 Branches. The Company shall be organised in Branches, as required, at the discretion of the Board.

Residential Accommodation

1.10 ONE shall, at its discretion, provide accommodation for those in need of such accommodation.

Rescinding / Amending / Interpreting Handbook of Rules

1.11 The rules of ONE are as contained in the Handbook of Rules and are subject to amendments from time to time.

1.12 This Handbook of Rules shall form its basis from the ONE Constitution (Memorandum and Articles of Association of the ONE) and may only be amended by Annual Convention or by Special General Meeting.

1.13 Amendments may be put forward for resolution from affiliated Branches, from Area Councils or from the Board and shall be passed by Annual Convention, on a majority equal to or greater than two-thirds of delegates present, entitled to vote and voting.

1.14 The Board at its discretion shall deal with any matter not provided for in the Handbook of Rules.

CHAPTER 2 MEMBERSHIP

Ordinary Membership

2.1 Ordinary Membership of ONE shall be open to the categories listed hereunder providing such person had at least one year's satisfactory service, has been honourably discharged¹, and has completed the current registration form declaring acceptance of the Articles of Association and Handbook of Rules for the ONE and providing such person is accepted by an affiliated Branch of the ONE, and subsequently by the Board

- a. Veterans of the Permanent Defence Force.
- b. Veterans and serving personnel of the Reserve Defence Force.
- c. Ex-service personnel of the Civil Defence.
- d. Ex-service members of An Garda Síochána.
- e. Ex-service personnel of the Irish Red Cross.

2.2 A member may hold membership of only one Branch.

2.3 Membership of the ONE will be deemed to have ceased on any one of the following

- a. Receipt in writing by a Branch of a member's resignation from ONE.
- b. Failure to pay, within three calendar months from the due date on 01 January, the annual subscription on instructions from the Branch.
- c. On the authority of the Board
- d. On the demise of a member.

2.4 Notwithstanding anything in these rules, the Board has the power to debar or suspend from holding any office of ONE or may expel any member whose actions or conduct is considered to be prejudicial to the interests of ONE and its members. Any member who acts or incites others to act in any way inconsistent with the aims or aspirations of the Company or who gained membership of the Company by fraud or misrepresentation shall have their membership revoked by the Board.

2.5 Where a member is convicted in a Court of Law of a serious criminal offence his/her membership of the Company shall be reviewed by the Board. The Board's decision in the matter shall be final.

2.6 A member who has been the subject of disciplinary measures taken by the Committee of Complaints, Discipline and Procedures may appeal the findings to the Board at the next meeting of the Board following on the date the finding was handed down. The appellant may not make representations to any member(s) of the Board of Directors prior to the Board's consideration of the appeal. The decision of the Board in the matter shall be final.

2.7 In accepting membership of ONE, a member shall be bound by and shall submit to the Constitution and the Handbook of Rules.

2.8 A member ceasing to be a member, or resigning or having been expelled from the Company shall have no right or claim upon the Company or upon its funds or effects.

Volunteer Membership

2.9 Volunteer membership is open to persons other than those listed in paragraph 2.1 who are of good character and who wish to volunteer with a Branch. Such persons may be enrolled as Volunteer Members of a Branch having received the prior approval of the Board. Volunteer Members are welcome in good faith in Branches to help do such things as will assist in achieving the objects and aims of ONE through the Branch concerned. Volunteer Members shall be associated with one branch only.

2.10 Volunteer Members shall be required to pay annual subscription. The annual subscription will be set by the Board.

2.11 Volunteer Members shall conform to the rules and policies of ONE but shall not be eligible for election to any office in ONE, or to be delegates from a Branch to an Area Council or General Meetings or Annual Convention.

2.12 Volunteer Members or other observers who attend Branch General Meetings may participate but not vote at such meetings.

2.13 Volunteer Members shall be entitled to wear the blazer with branch crest and uniform trousers.

2.14 Volunteer membership of the company shall be deemed to have ceased on receipt in writing by a branch of a volunteer member's resignation from that branch. On resignation, a volunteer member shall have no right or claim upon the company or upon its funds and effects.

2.15 Volunteer membership shall be reviewed annually by Branches

Honorary Membership

2.16 The Board at its sole discretion may award Honorary Membership of a Branch to persons whom they consider suitable.

2.17 Branches may recommend persons to the Board, such recommendations to be accompanied by a written citation stating a case for the award.

2.18 Honorary non ex-service members shall not be eligible for election to any office in the Company, to represent a Branch as a delegate or to vote at meetings.

2.19 The Board shall review Honorary Membership annually. A decision of the Board on the nomination of any person for Honorary Membership shall be final and shall be conveyed in writing to the Branch concerned without delay.

CHAPTER 3 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Annual Convention

- 3.1 The Board shall decide the location and date of the Annual Convention.
- 3.2 The Annual Convention shall consist of: - The officers of ONE, the members of the outgoing Board and not more than three delegates from each affiliated Branch.
- 3.3 Notwithstanding paragraph 3.2 above, any ordinary member of ONE may attend the Annual Convention of the Company.
- 3.4 The Annual Convention shall be presided over by the Cathaoirleach (Chairperson) of the Board.
- 3.5 Except where otherwise provided, all voting at the Annual Convention shall be by a show of delegate cards and the declaration of An Cathaoirleach (Chairperson) that a motion has been carried or rejected shall be final, unless immediately after such a declaration, a poll be demanded by more than ten (10) percent of those present and eligible to vote. In the case of an equality of votes, An Cathaoirleach (The Chairperson) shall have a casting vote.

President/President Elect– Nomination, Election, Eligibility & Vacancy

- 3.6 The National President shall be elected for a period of two years after which he/she retires and may not offer him/herself for re-election.
- 3.7 Affiliated Branches only may submit nominations for President on the appropriate pro-forma supplied by the Company.
- 3.8 Before a member is nominated for the office the member's name must have been shown on a Branch nominal roll for the previous two years.
- 3.9 The Board shall decide the closing date for nominations, which should not ordinarily extend beyond the 31st day of January.
- 3.10 A ballot of Branches shall elect a President in the year prior to the relinquishment of office of the incumbent President. The result of the ballot shall be announced at Annual Convention.
- 3.11 Each Branch shall have a single vote for a single candidate. Where there is a tied vote a ballot of delegates present at Annual Convention shall be taken to decide the issue. The Branch Chairperson will certify that a properly convened meeting had taken place and that the vote cast for a candidate reflects the majority decision of the members at the said meeting.
- 3.12 In the event that the office of President becomes vacant in the first year of office either through resignation, incapacity or death the Board must convene a meeting of the Area Council Presidents to seek nominations for the post from among them. If there is a clearly preferred candidate s/he shall assume the role of President until the end of that year, such decision to be confirmed at a properly convened meeting of the Board. If there is a tied vote the Board shall have the right to choose from among the candidates proffered. Should the Office of President become vacant for any of the aforementioned reasons in the second year of office the position of President to be assumed by the President Elect.

3. 13 A member may be nominated for the office, providing the members name has been shown on a Branch nominal roll for the previous two years.

ONE POLICIES and PROCEDURES

4.1 Policies and Procedures are designed to influence and determine all major decisions and actions of ONE, and all activities take place within the boundaries set by them. Policies are the principles, rules, and guidelines formulated and adopted by ONE to reach its long-term goals. Procedures are the specific methods employed to express policies in action in day-to-day operations of the organisation. Together, Policies and Procedures ensure that a point of view held by the Board of ONE is translated into steps that result in an outcome compatible with that view.

4.2 The Board shall promulgate Policies and Procedures from time to time and shall review them at regular intervals of not less than 3 years. These Policies and Procedures are issue for compliance by the Board, CEO, Head Office Staff, Area Councils, Branches, Homes, and individual members of ONE.

4.3 Failure by any Branch to comply with this Policies and Procedures may lead to the revocation of the Branch Warrant at the annual review conducted by the Board of Directors under this Handbook of Rules.

4.4 Failure by an employee or individual member of ONE to comply with Policies and Procedures may result in disciplinary action.

4.5 Policies and Procedures may be promulgated in the following areas and in other areas decided by the Board from time to time

- a. Bullying.
- b. Code of Ethics.
- c. Compliance.
- d. Conflict of Interest.
- e. Convictions.
- f. Data Protection.
- g. Disputes and Complaints.

- r. Veteran Support Centres.

CHAPTER 5 AREA COUNCILS

Introduction

- 5.1 Area Councils may be set up in Areas as defined by the Board.
- 5.2 All Branches in the geographical areas of Area Council shall register annually with that Area Council. Such registration shall be notified to ONE Head Office by the 31st March of each year.
- 5.3 The Board at its discretion may dissolve an Area Council. The dissolution to be submitted to the next Annual Convention of the Company for ratification.

Role of Area Councils

- 5.4 The role of Area Councils shall include the duty of advice, co-ordination, encouragement and supervision of the Branches in its Area. Area Councils are also responsible for dissemination of information from Board level to Branches within their area.
- 5.5 Area Councils shall recommend to the Board the dissolution or merger of any Branch or Branches within its Area and shall furnish the Board with the reasons in writing for such request. Should it come to an Area Councils notice that a Branch within its area is experiencing difficulties, whether because of numerical strength or financial difficulties or for any other reason, the Council should arrange contact with the Branch by any means but preferably by visiting the Branch concerned. The Board shall at its next subsequent meeting examine and decide on the recommendation referred to it by the Area Council. ONE Head Office shall convey in writing to the Area Council and to the Branch / Branches concerned the decision of the Board.
- 5.6 Area Councils will liaise with branches that are having difficulty with administration, accounts or financial returns. Any such Branch shall be notified in writing to the CEO no later than 5 working days after the Area Council has been so informed of such difficulty.
- 5.7 Area Councils will coordinate member branches 'Lá na bhFiann' ceremonies/Annual Mass dates (where possible) and other relevant activities in order to avoid clash of dates between branches. Area Councils shall notify head office in writing of any such dates selected for inclusion on the company web site and social media platforms.
- 5.8 Area Councils will be responsible for the maintenance and manning of any Veteran Support Centres within its area. In this regard the Area Council may assign a particular Branch or Branches to maintain the day to day running of the said Veteran Support Centres.
- 5.9 Area Councils shall arrange meetings, conduct localised Public Relations and collect funds in accordance with instructions issued by the Annual Convention of the Company and/or the Board. Area Councils shall collect any necessary levies on Branches sanctioned by the Board.

5.10 The Area Council PRO or a nominated representative for the Area Council shall be a member of the Branch Liaison Committee of the Board. He/She shall attend all meetings of this committee, raise area issues and note relevant details for dissemination at Area Council meetings.

5.11 The Area Council should encourage all members to familiarise themselves with Health and Safety legislation. In this regard the Area Council should appoint a member as Safety Officer who should pay particular attention to Health and Safety aspects relative to locations of meetings viz. Emergency exits, Assembly Points, number of members at meetings and in the event of an emergency should check that all members are accounted for.

5.12 The officers from the three Area Councils shall meet for organised workshops no later than mid-April each year and also at the Annual Convention venue following the close of the Convention.

5.13 Area Councils will carry out loyally all instructions issued by Annual Convention and /or the Board.

Organisation and Elections

5.14 The Constitution of Area Councils shall not be more than two delegates from each affiliated Branch in the Area, from amongst whom they may elect the following: President / Cathaoirleach (Chairperson); Secretary; Treasurer; Welfare Officer; P.R.O; Training Officer/Fundraising; and best practices Co-ordinator. Their period of office shall be one year.

5.15 The outgoing officers will step down and the election will be chaired by a Member Branch Delegate who is not offering him/herself for office and who is not an outgoing officer. If a Director of the Company or the CEO is present he/she may be invited to chair the election regardless of whether he is a member or delegate of that Area Council.

5.16 Outgoing principal officers, i.e. President/Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer, who have served in either or any of the above offices for three consecutive years (that an individual who has served in one or more of the offices in question during the immediate three years past) may not offer him/herself for election in any of those offices for a minimum of two years. This rule will have retroactive effect in relation to the immediate three years past.

5.17 En Bloc nominations will not be permitted and will have no legal effect.

5.18 Outgoing officers who have served in one or more of the above positions for one, or two consecutive years shall be deemed to be ex-officio and will therefore be eligible as candidates for re-election provided that they declare their candidacy to the AGM prior to the election of officers.

5.19 Where an Area Council has only five or less branches, (5.16) above will not apply, or where no alternative candidates are prepared to allow their names go forward for election.

5.20 Members of the Board are entitled to attend and speak at all meetings of Area Councils but shall not vote unless they are also delegates.

Annual General Meeting

5.21 The Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Area Council shall be held in the month of February each year. The person holding the position of PRO/Liaison Officer/Area Organiser may offer him/herself for election annually.

5.22 Nominations for all elective positions will be from the floor for all officer appointments. Voting will also be from the floor for all officer appointments. Candidates for officer appointments must be present at the AGM to validate their candidacy. Should a candidate be indisposed s/he may formally submit his/her willingness to stand in writing to reach the Secretary at least twenty four hours prior to the commencement of the meeting. Branch Associate Members or other observers who attend Area Council Meeting may not participate or vote at such meetings. Where a position or office is contested the voting will be by secret ballot.

5.23 The Area Council Secretary shall send to ONE Head Office before 15th March each year the names and addresses of members together with list of all Branches in the Area who were represented at the Annual General Meeting and a summary of the proceedings.

5.24 The Area Council Treasurer shall forward a copy of the Balance Sheet and the Treasurers report, as presented to the AGM of the Council, to ONE Head Office before the 15th of March each year.

Ordinary Meetings

5.25 Area Councils shall have three (3) Ordinary Meetings a year in addition to the AGM.

- a. At least one of these meetings will be for the purpose of education / training Branch Officers in their role and duties.
- b. At least one of these meetings will be attended by the CEO and/or Board Director who will brief the Councils on on-going developments and future strategy in accordance with decisions and policy of the Board of O.N.E.
- c. The Area Councils will act as a conduit of communication between the Board of O.N.E. and Branches within its area. This will be a two way system. In addition to disseminating information from Board level to the Branches, Area Councils will also bring forward suggestions and views of Branches within its area to Board level through the office of the CEO.

5.26 Minutes of all Area Council meetings shall be forwarded to ONE Head Office within 14 days of such meetings. Area Council Secretaries will record only the following in the minute book: date, venue, apologies, attendance and all decisions taken. The business conducted at meeting may not under any circumstances be recorded by Dictaphone or any other electronic recording device without the agreement of all officers and delegates present.

5.27 The Area Council shall discuss such matters as are brought to its attention by the Branches in the Area.

5.28 The Area Council shall take such action as may be agreed by a majority of the delegates present and voting at a meeting on matters affecting its own Areas only. Any other matters shall be referred to ONE Head Office in writing no later than 5 working days after such vote takes place.

5.29 In the event of a vacancy occurring amongst its officers, the Area Council shall elect a replacement from amongst the delegates to the Area Council within 6 weeks of such vacancy occurring.

5.30 All Branches in the Area shall attend meetings of the Area Council and support its projects. The quorum for meetings of the Area Council shall be a number equivalent to 50% of the number of Branches in its area plus one, e.g. 10 Branches= 5+1.

5.31 In the absence of the Cathaoirleach (Chairperson) and the Vice-Chairperson, members shall appoint a Cathaoirleach (Chairperson) from the members attending. The Secretary or Treasurer shall not be eligible to preside.

5.32 The duties of Officers of the Area Council shall be as laid down in "Council Standing Orders". In the event of any conflict as between the terms of these standing orders and those of the Handbook of Rules of O.N.E. the terms of the latter shall prevail.

5.33 Meetings of the Council shall be held in a venue to be decided at each Meeting. In the event of failure to agree on a venue, the Secretary, after consultation with Cathaoirleach (Chairperson), shall have the authority to fix a venue.

5.34 No matter of a political or sectarian nature shall be discussed at Council meetings.

5.35 Should the Cathaoirleach (Chairperson) consider that a matter being raised is of sufficient importance, he/she may rule that the discussion is suspended and that Notice of Motion be given. The person raising the "Notice of Motion" shall thereupon inform the meeting of his/her intention to raise the matter at the next Council meeting. Notice of motion under this paragraph may be given verbally or in writing.

5.36 A special meeting may be convened on a demand by two-thirds of those present, entitled to vote and voting, or if the Chairperson at his/her discretion at any time decides. At least 14 days notice of such meeting shall be given in writing to all branches and the notice shall include the purpose for which the Special Meeting is being held. At a Special Meeting no subject other than that for which it has been called may be raised.

5.37 Failure to obey the Chairperson may incur censure up to and including suspension, at the discretion of the Cathaoirleach (Chairperson).

5.38 Failure to obey the Council shall incur a suspension. Whether to suspend a member under this Rule shall be decided by a majority equal to or greater than two-thirds of those present, entitled to vote and voting.

5.39 Any member so suspended under Paragraph 5.33 or 5.34 shall have the right to appeal to the Board.

Disputes and Complaints

5.40 Subject to the Policy & Procedures on Disputes and Complaints, referred to in Chapter 4, the Area Councils will act as an Arbiter in relation to disputes or complaints within their area, subject to the right of appeal.

5.41 The Council when sitting shall appoint a committee consisting of three members to investigate disputes or complaints, none of whom may be from the branch/branches involved, and they shall represent at least two different branches. A Chairperson shall be elected by the three members appointed and the Chairperson of the Committee shall ensure that an eligible substitute member is available if required on the date in question.

5.42 The Committee shall be appointed and convened by the Cathaoirleach (Chairperson) of the Area Council when the Council is not sitting. All members of O.N.E. are obliged to co-operate with Committees set up to investigate complaints or disciplinary matters within fourteen days of being requested, failing to do so may entail disciplinary action.

5.43 The Committee shall be Ordinary Members of ONE, shall not be members of an Area Council or the Board, and shall operate independently of the Area Council and the Board.

5.44 The Committee shall have the power to investigate, and impose disciplinary measures, including loss of voting rights, suspensions and ultimately expulsions from the Company as laid down in the Handbook of Rules and Constitution of O.N.E.

5.45 All findings and rulings of the Committee must be signed by not less than two members of the Committee, and shall be binding on all concerned.

5.46 A member or a Branch may appeal the findings of the Committee to the Board providing s/he does so within seven days following on the date the findings of the Committee were announced.

5.47 The Board shall have the power to confirm or rescind the findings of the Committee and the decision of the Board is final.

5.48 In all cases findings of the Committee shall not have effect until the Board has confirmed them.

5.49 The Committee, in all its deliberations shall bear in mind the dictates of natural justice and fair procedures, and must in all cases allow Members and Branches the right to present their case and notify those involved of the complaint and make full discovery of all documentation relating to the dispute / complaint so that they may defend themselves.

5.50 No member of the O.N.E. is permitted to raise disciplinary issues regarding employees of the O.N.E. with the Area Councils. Any such complaint shall be notified to the Complaints Chairperson on the Board of Directors in writing and signed by the complainant. The Complaints Chairperson shall thereafter notify the Board of Directors of any such complaint and thereafter proceed in accordance with the most recent Disputes & Complaints Policy.

CHAPTER 6 BRANCHES

Introduction

6.1 Every Branch of ONE must be familiar with the Constitution, this Handbook of Rules and the associated Policies and Procedures, and shall be bound by them.

6.2 Every Branch is answerable for the conduct of its members.

6.3 A Branch may not parade in any public procession, meeting or demonstration of a political or sectarian nature. The decision as to what other parades a Branch may attend shall be determined by the Branch but should assist in Branches identifying themselves as much as possible with comradeship, remembrance, local community and civic affairs.

Branch Warrants

6.4 The Company shall be organised in Branches through the issue of Branch Warrants which shall be reviewed annually by the Board.

6.5 New Branches
